Shoreham Garden Club Sponsors a Card Party Friday

Country Club to be Scene of This Year's Garden Club Benefit

The Shoreham Garden Club will hold a card party on Friday evening, August 11, at 8:30 o'clock at the Shoreham Country Club. This card party is in charge of the ways and means committee, of which Mrs. E. W. Oliver is chairman. The sale of tickets, which are $1, is in the hands of Mrs. Mildred Davis, Mrs. Albert Barnhart, Mrs. H. J. Laurencot, and Mrs. James Robinson. Door prizes for both men and women have been donated; also an opportunity will be given to buy shares on other useful articles. A unique prize will be offered for holders of 150 honors in contract, the last man to hold such honors will be allowed to keep the prize.

This is the one affair this season for which the Garden Club asks the cooperation of every one in Shoreham. If the endeavors of the Garden Club are appreciated, it must be shown by making this card party a success. The proceeds will be used to maintain the projects now under the care of the Garden Club.

The committee in charge is counting on the help of every Shoreham resident to sell tickets, to buy tickets, and to be there. There will be a choice to play contract bridge, poker, or Chinese checkers, with attractive prizes for each table; there will also be a choice of crackers, cheese and beer or ice cream and cake. A large attendance is expected if it is clear; a larger attendance if it rains, for the Garden Club treasury needs money as much as the country needs rain.

Virginia Reel Feature at Children's Mid-Week Dance

Miss Jantzer began her regular Wednesday night dancing class at 7:30 which lasted until 8:30. After the class was over, Mrs. A. W. Varian, assisted by Mrs. Jack Weatherby, entertained the children with games and so forth. Prize winners were as follows: The flashlight dance was won by Miss Nancy Thurber and Master Harry Laurencot. This combination has been pretty lucky so far this year at winning some sort of game. The prize for the mat dance went to Miss Patricia Sherman, and the prizes for "Going to Jerusalem" were won by Master Junior Sarkany and Miss Ellen Varian. The Virginia Reel, coached by Miss Jantzer, supplied the big reason why everybody had a "swell" time.

Com. Kenworthy Charged With Malicious Mischief

MRS. BARNHART'S COMPLAINT TO BE HEARD AT MOCK TRIAL TOMORROW

Last Sunday morning Mrs. A. W. Barnhart charged Commander J. L. Kenworthy with malicious and disorderly conduct on the night of Saturday, July 29, 1939. Mrs. Barnhart charged that the Commander had put a scare bomb on the distributor of her car, and that as a result of the whistling, the bang and the smoke she suffered from nervous shock. After this was reported to Officer Frank Woodfield, the officer made out a bill of complaint and a summons and put them in the hands of the Village Judge, Sheldon DuCret.

The date, place and time set for the mock trial will be August 5, 1939 at the clubhouse, at 11 a.m. The plaintiff has selected her lawyers from Shoreham. These lawyers are to be the Messrs. Jack Hunsicker, Gilly Frei, Frank Heiss, Jack Varian, and Herbert Frei. The counsel for the defendant has not yet been named but Kenworthy will have a resident lawyer to present his plea, and a New York lawyer to fight the charge. The jury panel has not been chosen; it will be chosen from the spectators just prior to the trial.

Numerous star witnesses have been obtained by both the plaintiff and the defendant, but their names are not to be disclosed until the time of the trial. It is acclaimed by both sides that they will bring out incriminating evidence on many prominent residents of Shoreham.

Tenth Annual North Shore Horse Show Opens Aug. 17

Three Day Show for Benefit of Church Charity Foundation

Summer colonists on the North Shore of Long Island and show ring devotees elsewhere in the metropolitan area are looking forward to the tenth annual North Shore Horse Show, which will be held from Aug. 17-19 on the grounds of the Old Field Club near Stony Brook, L. I. This widely known show, with sweepstakes in all divisions, substantial purses and a variety of trophies, will be a benefit for the children's cottages of the Church Charity Foundation of Long Island.

Ward Melville is president of the show and other members of the executive committee are Randall E. Poindexter and O. E. McIntyre, vice presidents; Miss Edith Fuller, secretary; Herbert E. Ingram, assistant secretary; B. G. Dearborn, treasurer.

Saddles classes have been omitted from the program this year for the first time in the history of the show. There will be many hunt team events, horsemanship classes, working and conformation hunter classes and a special stake class for hunters. In accordance with a tradition of seven years' standing, there will be two flood-lighted night sessions and a gala round of social festivities which will culminate in the annual Horse Show Ball on the final night.

The custom of placing the arrangements for the Horse Show Ball in the hands of the young people will be observed again this year, with Miss Margaret Melville of Stony Brook, chairman of the committee.

This affair is always the gayest of the festivities which surround the show, and draws the entire North Shore countryside, who look forward to it, as well as to the more serious side of the proceedings.

String Ensemble Plays Ten Selections at Sunday Song Service

Mr. Phillip Teleman

and Mrs. Geysa Sarkany Cello and Vocal Soloists

Last Sunday night at the song service ten delightful numbers were played by a string ensemble under the direction of Mr. Godfrey Kritzer. This program was unique because never before have the people of Shoreham had the privilege to hear such music in Shoreham. There were 18 pieces in the ensemble including Dr. and Mrs. Geysa Sarkany and Miss Barbara Sarkany. It was through the arrangements of Mrs. Sarkany that it was possible for the string ensemble to be here. The following is a list of the selections played:

Overture to Messiah, Handel; Prize Song, R. Wagner; O Saviour Hear Me, Gluck, sung by Mrs. Sarkany; cello solo by Mr. Phillip Teleman, accompanied by Mrs. Sarkany, (a) Hungarian Rhapsody, Popper; (b) The Flight of the Bumble Bee, Korsakov; (d) Minuet, Mozart; Little Night Music, Mozart; Spring Song, Lacombe; Coronation March from "Prophet," Myerbeer.

Special interest was taken in the selections played by the cello soloist, Mr. Phillip Teleman, a true artist, and in the vocal selection by Mrs. Sarkany, a versatile musician.

The largest attendance for a good number of years was at this service. Mrs. John R. Bates, chairman of the services, and Mr. Jack Haslett, leader of the service, were very pleased with the turnout and hope that a large number of people will attend the song services each Sunday night.

Flash!

Beware! News has just been received that Christopher's skunk has escaped, and is at large in Shoreham.

"Information Please" to Take Place at the Saturday Night Dance

Mrs. Callender to be "Mrs. Quiz"; 4 Savants to Answer Questions

At last the long expected "Information Please" is to take place at 11:30 o'clock this Saturday night at the Shoreham Country Club. The arrangements of this hour are in the hands of Mr. John W. Haslett, president of the club. Mr. Donald MacKinnon, chairman of the finance committee, and Mr. Robert Oliver, a member of the entertainment committee. Mrs. Ivy Lee Callender will be Mrs. Quiz; four other members of the Shoreham community will be selected because of their fund of knowledge to answer questions which will be submitted to them. These questions may pertain to anything, at all, but questions concerning past and present goings-on in Shoreham would prove to be more interesting. The correct answer must accompany all questions, which must be in the hands of one of the officers of the club before eight o'clock prior to the dance.

Vincent J. Sherman to be Married at Center Moriches

Many members of the Shoreham colony have been invited to be present at the marriage of Mr. Vincent J. Sherman and Miss Jean Simes of Brooklyn and Center Moriches on Saturday afternoon, August 5, 1939, at the home of the bride in Center Moriches. Miss Simes is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roland Simes, and Mr. Sherman is the son of the late Dr. David Sherman and Mrs. Sherman, long residents of Shoreham.

Miss Simes will wear a long blue chiffon dress with turban to match. Her only attendant will be her sister, Miss Janet Simes, who will act as maid of honor. Mr. Sherman's brother, Mr. Wesley J. Sherman, will be best man; and the ushers will be from the famed order of the "Knights of the Red Garter," a Shoreham club of which "Vinnie" Sherman was a member. These knights are Dr. F. W. Finn, and the Messrs. John W. Haslett, Robert Oliver, Donald MacKinnon and Jack Hagenagh. Monsignor O'Brien, chaplain of the Rainbow Division of the World War, will officiate at the marriage ceremony; a reception will follow in the garden, which Mr. Sherman and his bride will be at home in Sussex Gardens, near Forest Hills, when they return from their honeymoon.

Miss Barbara Sarkany Celebrates Birthday

Miss Barbara Sarkany had a birthday party on the beach this afternoon celebrating her thirteenth birthday. The guests were Ursula Ballman, Fritz and Cornelia-Jane Van Arnem, Jean and Claire Laurencot, Nancy Thurber, Pat and Buddy Sherman, Edwin Barnhardt, and Esther and Jeannette Sarkany. There were an amateur contest, Swimming Races, Lying Contest, and many other games. Supper was served on the beach.

WHY THE APATHY?

Dear Editor:
The residents of Shoreham were given three fine treats over last week-end. These were the illuminated floral display at the Pallister's garden on Friday, the illustrated lecture by Major Simmonds at the club on Saturday, and the concert by the Sarkany's and their guests on Sunday night.

They were all excellent beyond words and given at times that interfered with nothing else. The Pallister garden display could not be surpassed for beauty of design and color combinations to say nothing of the artistic setting aided by nature with a full moon and Mars peering in only 32,000,000 miles away plus the beautiful girls passing refreshments! The lecture and the orchestral concert were of the highest type and character, instructive as well as entertaining, and both of the sort for which you would pay $2 to $5 a seat to hear in Carnegie Hall.

The first was fairly well attended. The second by only a handful, in fact no one there at the scheduled hour of 8:30 so it had to be held up a half hour for an audience. ~~It was heard by about half~~ the people who should have been there!

All of these events were free and all Shorehamites and their guests not only invited, but urged to attend, and were given for their benefit and pleasure. All of them required considerable effort and some expense and doubtless inconvenience on the part of the sponsors and the participants.

Courtesy, if nothing else, to those guests and the hosts should have packed the grounds and the clubhouse to overflowing. Those whose indifference caused them to miss any one of the three treats were the losers. Is Shoreham so blasé or so bourgeois that they do not want or fail to appreciate those cultural opportunities? I hardly think so but surely they didn't take the trouble (as a whole) to fit their plans in so as to show their appreciation of what was being done for them.

The Sunday evening song services could also be made a very real, important, and helpful part of the scheme of life in Shoreham that we all enjoy so much,—if everyone would plan to let nothing interfere with that hour just as they plan on golf or tennis, swimming or eating the next meal.

Fifteen Minute Parking Signs Erected at Station

Fifteen minute parking signs have been erected on Main street, Port Jefferson Station, between the postoffice and the railroad station by the State Highway Department as a concession to merchants who had complained about the parking situation. Elsewhere on the street two-hour parking signs have been put up.

Petitions signed by the merchants recently protested the change from diagonal to parallel parking under a State order.

Mrs. Jennie Macconnell Melville, civic leader, philanthropist and widow of Frank Melville, founder of the Melville Shoe Corporation, died Wednesday at her home, Sunwood, on Mount Gray Road, Old Field, L. I. She was 82 years old. She had a city home at 1060 Fifth avenue.

Among her many civic activities Mrs. Melville headed the campaign for the building of the Brooklyn Women's Club, one of the first women's clubs in the country; organized the Three Village Garden Club, which is composed of members from Stony Brook, Setauket and Old Field, and bought and restored to its original Colonial appearance the Three Village Inn as a women's exchange for the sale of home products.

Funeral services will be held at 11:30 a. m. on Saturday in the garden of Sunwood. Burial will be in the churchyard of the Caroline Church.

Mrs. C. V. Pallister Recuperating at Home

Mrs. C. V. Pallister is convalescing in her home after returning from the Mather Hospital in Port Jefferson where she was rushed last week when it was feared that an operation might be necessary. Because of this, she was unable to be present at the Garden Club lecture in her own garden on last Friday night.

Major Simmonds Delivers Instructive Lecture

Major A. P. Simmonds, retired army officer, made it very clear to his audience last Saturday night by lantern slides and his interesting narration his extreme hardships encountered while exploring the Labrador. The three thousand miles traveled by canoe through this unexplored region presented narrow and thrilling experiences and from this trip he was able to report much valuable information to the National Geographic Society which was entirely new since he has been farther into the great unknown Ungava than any other white man.

Mrs. J. Townsend Woodhull, Mrs. William Miller and Mrs. Clifford Rowley were the guests Sunday afternoon of Mrs. Selden W. Heatley.

The croquet tournament of the Wading River Field and Tennis Club rates considerable interest this season. Each match has been closely contested, and all have been attended by large and enthusiastic groups of spectators. In the first round, Mr. and Mrs. Lars DeLagerberg defeated Mrs. A. M. Howell, Sr., and Walter LePierre; Mrs. Ar-

Gardener's Calendar for the First Week in August

Water is the gardener's best friend. Probably nobody will dispute that statement now, when lack of it, supplied as only Heaven knows how, is causing all who love their gardens much concern. Under some conditions, water is more necessary than fertilizer. This applies to roses at this time.

If water must be used sparingly, because of scarcity or expense, a device for applying it direct to the spot where it is most needed is useful. Such a device, which looks like a cane, is on the market. One end is thrust into the ground and the other attached to the hose. The water is thus sent directly to the roots without waste. Fertilizer may be washed into the ground by partly filling holes with it and then inserting the rod. Such holes may be made with a crowbar. Another useful device used in connection with the hose is one which contains a cartridge of fertilizer, insecticide or fungicide. The cartridge is gradually dissolved by the water. This is the easiest method of spraying.

It is a waste of water to merely sprinkle lawn or garden. Moreover, this is bad practice as it tends to attract the roots of grass and plants to the surface, where they are likely to be damaged by the hot sun. If any good is to be done, water should be allowed to run in one place until the ground is saturated, at least six inches down. If the soil is good, cultivation should religiously be practiced the morning after this soaking to prevent caking of the soil around the plant. This caking prevents the circulation of air and presents as dangerous a situation for the plant as it faced before the water was applied. A dust mulch is the best way in the world of maintaining a moist condition about the roots. No other mulch is as satisfactory as the loose earth. Any other will harbor bugs and grubs and diseased leaves so that it should be replaced at intervals during the summer and the old mulch burned. Buckwheat hulls, crushed peanut shells, shredded cornstalks and sugar cane stalks are some of the materials used as mulches. Peat moss is excellent, but it tends to make soil acid and will absorb surface moisture to such an extent that, unless enough be supplied to thoroughly (Continued on page 4)

Louise Sackett Gets Paddle Boat "Eureka"
 If you had been present at the beach last Thursday afternoon, you would have seen a small paddle boat called the "Eureka" launched. This boat had just been given to "Weezie" Sackett by her father. It is painted light tan with a red bottom and blue and red stripes on the sides. It is driven by pushing two peddles on the floor of the boat and is equipped with a fake dashboard and a small horn. The boat was envied by all the children of the beach and every person had a ride while poor Weezie stood on the beach and watched the goings-on.

Suwasset Garden Club
 The members of the Shoreham Garden Club are invited to attend the next meeting of the "Suwasset Garden Club" at the residence of Mrs. Wells R. Ritch, 109 Jones avenue, Port Jefferson. Mrs. Addison S. Pratt will lecture on the subject, "The Story of Gardening" at this meeting, which will take place on Tuesday, August 8th, at 2:30 p. m.

Illumination of Pallister Garden Enjoyed by All
 The illumination of the Pallister Garden on last Friday evening was something new to most of the members of the Shoreham Garden Club and their guests. The short talk before the garden lighting was illustrated by colored slides showing other gardens when the lighting effects were specially lovely and interesting. The use of light bulbs and how to conceal them was demonstrated, showing how certain spots of particular interest in a garden, such as a pool, statue, gateway, colored border or nook should be brought out, thus making pleasing lights and shadows, rather than having the whole garden in a blaze of light. Bulbs placed under an artificial lily pad in a pool showing up the real water lilies, or behind a crane or other artificial feature, adds to the attraction and makes quite a different picture from the garden by daylight. The Garden Club is greatly indebted to Mrs. Marjorie Wardmann and the Long Island Lighting Co. for arranging a very pleasant evening.

Police Regulations Regarding Village Beach

It was requested by the trustees of the Village of Shoreham that the Shoreham Sounder publish the police regulations for the village and beach. These regulations had not been published for two years, and it was requested that each member of the community read them thoroughly and abide thereby. They will be strictly enforced by the village police, of which Wesley J. Sherman is chief, Frank Woodfield, day officer, and Erik Lyberg, night officer.

Seeing that the beach is enjoyed by the small children, the trustees again requested that the regulations regarding the beach be run so that the beach will be a safe place.

No boats of any kind, except the Village Emergency Boat, shall be placed, moored or used, inside the lifelines.

The beach fronting the area inside the lifelines shall be kept clear of boats, except the Village Emergency Boat.

No rubbish shall be placed or left on the beach at any time. Rubbish receptacles are available at convenient locations for depositing rubbish from the beach. Tin, glass, china, or similar containers create a serious accident hazard to bathers, and should be promptly removed from the beach.

All soft drink bottles brought from the club shall be returned to the club with reasonable promptness.

Dogs are not allowed on the beach except when held on leash and restrained from annoying any person or persons on the beach.

Dogs shall not be permitted to enter the water along the beach during the hours when bathers usually occupy the beach, 9:00 A.M. - 6:00 P.M.

No throwing of stones will be tolerated.

Boats shall not be placed on either rafts or floats at any time, nor shall boats be moored to the rafts or floats at any time.

It is suggested that children under ten years of age be allowed to go on the beach or in the water only when accompanied by adults.

Help promote our safety and comfort on the beach. Observe these regulations and encourage others to do the same. Report to the Life Guard, Police Officer, Village Clerk or to any village official any conditions which appear dangerous or undesirable or demand attention for any reason.

saturate the peat moss and allow some to trickle through the soil below, the roots of the plant it is supposed to protect will be more apt to be deprived of enough moisture than they would have been had the peat moss not been used. When peat moss is incorporated in the soil with a proper amount of lime, the very fact that it retains so much moisture makes it valuable as a soil conditioner. The two uses of the product are not to be confused.

Trees need water and fertilizer as well as smaller plants. They may be fed by making holes with a crowbar, 18 inches deep and about 18 inches apart all around the tree at the edge of the circle made by the tips of the lower branches. Measure the diameter of the tree about four feet above the ground and allow three pounds of balanced fertilizer for each inch of diameter, placing the fertilizer in the holes and washing it in with the hose.

Trees, shrubs and perennials should not be fertilized at this time of year.

Irving Berlin's "Second Fiddle" Coming to Port

An array of entertainment talent seldom equalled on the screen makes Irving Berlin's "Second Fiddle" big news to Port Jefferson's moviegoers, who will see, when it opens Aug. 9 at the Port Jefferson Theatre, Sonja Henie and Tyrone Power starred, Rudy Vallee and Edna May Oliver featured, new-star Mary Healy, and an eye-full of dancing and romancing to Berlin's six new song hits. Big surprises in the film include Sonja skating with a partner for the first time on the screen, a tropical rumba and tango on ice and a new ballroom dance craze, the "Back to Back." The step was evolved by Harry Losee, who staged the skating ensembles, from one of the Berlin songs, which include: "I'm Sorry for Myself," "An Old Fashioned Tune Always is New," "Song of the Metronome," "When Winter Comes" and "I Poured My Heart Into a Song."
